

Greece

---

Ports: Piraeus
Prohibited:
Cont: None

Diplomatic Removals

---

Required Documents:

Customs Regulations: Exempted from taxation on both household goods and car on an Embassy franchise basis.

Clearance:

Remarks: Electrical appliances are limited to one per kind.

Household Goods and Personal Effects

---

Required Documents: Greeks repatriating, foreigners married to Greeks, Greek Military, foreign EEC members must all have stayed abroad for at least 2 years. A 'Certificate of Repatriation' from the nearest Greek Consulate with detailed attached list of household goods. Foreigners coming to work (excluding L89/67 companies) will need a 'Certificate of Secondary Residence' from nearest Consulate with list of household goods; a personal or bank guarantee for amount of duties, and a house contract.

Customs Regulations: Foreign EEC members must apply to authorities for a 5 year residence permit; deposit to customs amount equivalent to duties, until permit is obtained and will then be reimbursed.

Clearance:

Remarks: Electrical appliances, one per kind, can be new, provided purchase prior to date of issuance of 'Certificate of Repatriation.' For foreigners coming to work, VAT would apply if shipments are imported from non-EEC countries. For foreigners coming to work, the Certificate of secondary residence must not mention that they are coming to Greece to work.

Vehicles

---

Required Documents:

Customs Regulations: Please check with agent as regulations for importing autos change frequently.

Clearance:

Remarks:

Please note:

The information on this page is intended as a guide and NOT as a complete or definitive resource.
The information on this page should not be used as an authoritative reference.